

February 4, 2015: Laura Rider (MIT), Mixed, derived, and generalized Springer correspondence.

The Springer correspondence yields a construction of Weyl group representations through geometric data on the nilpotent cone. In my talk, I will review the Springer correspondence, as well as discuss mixed and derived versions proved in 2012. If time permits, I'll discuss Lusztig's generalized Springer correspondence.